1117	Additional Comments:
Response #1	Technology didn't always work but that is out of his control
Response #2	Dheer was a really good, effective, and knowledgeable Graduate assistant who helped me and I believe everyone in the section a great deal
Response #3	The Graduate Assistant was always prepared with the material and was always willing to help us through the questions we had. However, sometimes his explanations were not always clear and were hard to follow.
Response #4	I thought that our TA was very helpful and always answered questions very thoroughly.
Response #5	Thank you for your help this semester Dheer!
Response #6	Mr. Desai is by far the BEST TA I've had at Delaware. He always takes extra time to make sure all of his students understand everything and provides plenty of opportunities to ask questions. I've stayed after our discussion section almost every week, as well as joined his office hours several times and he always takes the time to explain anything I don't understand until I fully understand it. His help has improved my performance in this class tremendously. He's literally taken the time after class to explain every single question on our homework when I was confused. Overall, I cannot say enough positives about this TA. He is truly so caring and helpful and I would not have done as well in this class without him!! Thank you!!
Response #7	Dheer was amazing, he taught me Calc!

Questions
QID	Question
1117	Additional Comments:
Response #1	Dheer was a great help this semester. He always had an answer to my questions and he tried his best to get around to every group during our discussion section.
Response #2	Very helpful whenever I had a question and he always did problems for the class to understand. I just did not like how we would go in breakout rooms the majority of the class. Honestly, the majority of students never talked, I always just worked on the assignment and would ask Dheer for help or occasionally other students in the breakout room for help. Also, I think the TA and Professor need to collaborate a bit more, there were some times where Dheer would be unsure of the way that Mr. Brittingham taught us the material. Other than that Dheer was extremely helpful and very understanding of the material.
Response #3	I liked attending his recitation section. He was able to explain everything really well.
Response #4	Great TA, provided a lot of help
Response #5	He was very good and always prepared.
Response #6	Dheer was absolutely amazing. I enjoyed attending this recitation every week.
Response #7	I did not really find the discussion section helpful because most of the time we were in breakout rooms, and nobody spoke or asked each other questions. I think it would have been more helpful to go over all of the questions on the worksheet as a group instead of for 10 minutes at the very end of the class.
Response #8	Very nice instructor
Response #9	I did not like the breakout room style of class. The TA was always going between rooms and had a hard time answering everyone's questions with time at the end to review. Doing the worksheets as a class would be more time efficient and more helpful for the students.
Response #10	Dheer was fantastic. Given our calc lecture didn't have much of an interactive nature, he was valuable because we could really interact with and bounce ideas off him.
Response #11	none
Response #12	good help and always answered questions

Response #13 I suggest a different grading system. I understand only 1 point is given if not all problems are attempted on the worksheets. But I think full credit should be given to students if they attempt each problem and show their work and still get the answer wrong. I had instances where I would only get 1 problem wrong out of the whole worksheet and would only get 50%.

1117	Additional Comments:
Response #1	Always willing to help and made sure we all were understanding the concepts
Response #2	Thanks for his helping. MATH221 is actually difficult, but with his help, I reviewed knowledge well.
Response #3	I sometimes found this discussion class to be more of a problem than help, the TA often made me more confused. As a person, he was very nice and always available for help. He clearly knows everything about calculus front to back, but sometimes his explanations were a little unclear and confusing. I do appreciate his help throughout the semester though.
Response #4	Dheer was very nice and always willing to help. Sometimes his explanations were difficult to follow/ he would do something slightly different than Professor Brittingham, but if you did not understand, he would not give up.
Response #5	Nice guy, discussion classes didn't help me learn more
Response #6	None

Questions
QID	Question
1117	Additional Comments:
Response #1	Dheer was enjoyable to be with in class. He was easy to connect with and understood students better than a professor would have. He truly tried his best to help his students to make sure they were prepared. Occasionally, he got caught up on specific questions and gave incorrect answers, but I'm sure that that wasn't due to his lack of knowledge. He was incredibly knowledgeable and respectable, he knew what he was teaching and did his best to extend his knowledge onto his students.
Response #2	Dheer was a good T.A. He was generally clear and helpful. He was funny and great to talk to as well, so going to him for help was not intimidating or anything.
Response #3	Dheer was a very kind TA who always helped people with their questions. He was understanding and patient with anyone who was confused. However, sometimes he did not know the information and could not solve the problems that we did not know how to do. Also, I do not think that the discussion class improved my learning from the lectures in any way.
Response #4	Pretty good overall, though sometimes needed to work out problems himself rather than being able to help us to the answer. I mean some problems he did not how to do also.
Response #5	Does bring up some good points and is knowledgable; however, he has trouble communicating his ideas to us effectively.
Response #6	Dheer is the Mr. Rogers of college math, him and DJ are perhaps sent to this earth by the creator himself to improve the overall state of math education in Delaware.

Response #7 Dheer was great!!

Response #8 Ok teacher, sometimes hard to understand, practice exercises not as helpful as I would have hoped, but very willing to help you out if you are confused.

Response #9 Dheer was pretty nice and funny, and he was a big help during office hours. I like his availability.

Response #1	Dheer rocks. Super fun TA and great at explaining course material.
Response #2	Great TA
Response #3	Dheer was incredibly kind and patient in class, but was unable to explain a lot of things in a way for me to understand. More often than not, I would leave discussion more confused than when I came in, even if I had come in not confused about the course material at all.
Response #4	nice guy; never really answered questions with complete clarity and was super vague; sometimes blatantly did not know what was happening
Response #5	Great TA, funny and smart. But please assign us groups instead of leaving it to us to decide
Response #6	Regarding the department-required activities, they were extremely unnecessary, never used again after discussion, and felt like a huge waste of time that could've been spent reviewing the material we were actually learning and going over questions about the lecture material. However, Dheer was a great TA, very prepared, graded quickly, and was very helpful and knowledgeable.

Response #2	You are good professor.
Response #3	The instructor has accent. I feel hard to understand.
Response #4	Dheer always responded to emails about any questions I had on the material. I also went to his office hours (and appointments). He was very accommodating and always willing to help. Even if it took time. While the instructor was helpful, I didn't find the discussion course to be helpful. With having a lecture three times a week, I think it is too much to have a discussion course on top of that. Perhaps it would have been more helpful if attendance was optional and assessments can be taken at outside of classroom (like on WebAssign).
Response #5	no
Response #6	Not a good resources, he was usually not prepared and didn't know what was happening and didn't know how to answer questions. seemed very nervous and confused a lot
Response #7	He is good. He prepared well

Response #1	He was a good TA how was kind and caring toward his students. However, at times it would seem like the class was dragging by and boring and maybe not as effective as the discussion time could have been.
Response #2	He is good
Response #3	TA is very friendly and helpful
Response #4	Great discussion leader. Was enthusiastic about teaching and helping us learn.
Response #5	This discussion section was awful. Like every single other math discussion section, I used this time to check my email as I was so bored trying to listen to the TA speak. He didn't know what he was doing, I wanted to skip this class every single week of the semester. It took al of my will power to go to this class. Dheer was so unorganized and the weekly discussion quizzes were just another way to ruin your grade if you were having trouble with a topic. Dheer, like every other TA I've had in the math department at UD has been awful at explaining things and I got nothing but aggravation from this class. When everyone on campus says that the Math department is atrocious, they mean it because it truly is. and the reason is because of mandatory discussion sections and horrible TAs.
Response #6	Great teacher
Response #7	It would have been helpful if the TA helped us with questions regarding our homework.
Response #8	n/a

Response #4	Dheer was extremely helpful all semester. He was always willing to clarify problems from the textbook or homework. He prepared us completely for what would appear on exams and quizzes. His grading is fair, and he displayed a clear mutual respect for the students in 31D (when at times their respect for him was lacking and presented itself as misdirected rude comments). He made himself readily available and accommodated individual students' schedules. He also advocated on their behalf or explained the decision kindly whenever there was a discrepancy with grades.

Questions
QID	Question
1117	Additional Comments:
Response #1	Course was hard this discussion helped
Response #2	I think the TA was prepared for most classes and was open to address any problems related to the coursework.
Response #3	My TA was well prepared for class and was able to clearly explain the material presented in lecture in a smaller setting
Response #4	Really nice and helpful
Response #5	Dheer was a extremely good TA. He always made sure everyone understood the concepts and was always willing to re-explain concepts to people who were struggling. Overall, he helped me do a whole lot better in Calculus that I would have done.
Response #6	- doesn't always understand the material himself though this is somewhat rare - not always good at explaining how he comes to a solution; it confuses students, but I tend to blame the way calculus is traditionally taught and not him - doesn't always give enough time to finish quizzes - this discussion class (and lecture) is a complete waste of my time and I would appreciate not having to attend. I already know the material, and in times that I don't understand them, I'm far more helpful to myself then having the TA explain it to me.
Response #7	Very nice, but oftentimes unprepared for class
Response #8	Such an incredible TA! So dedicated to explaining and furthering our understanding and such a kind person.

Response #2	Unclear. Didn't even know some answers or how to answer some questions. hard to understand. Made a lot of mistakes which made it confusing
Response #3	Overall good.
Response #4	He is nice and comes to class prepared, but it is sometimes difficult to understand his explanations. He typically makes us choose questions that we want to review, but I would guess that most of the students dont do the homework, so there is a lot of sitting and standing around. It takes him a long time to do the problems and sometimes we only get through 1 or 2 before the quizzes. The quizzes are fair though and test our understanding of the homework. I would suggest that he does not write down the problems on the board because it takes to long, so he can spend more time on the explanation and helping us solve it. By doing this, the explanation will be more clearer.

1117	Additional Comments:
Response #1	Great professor
Response #2	Instructor Dheer struggled to command participation, however, this is usually the case when it comes to graduate students. Technically speaking he was very knowledgeable about the subject, but his presentation of answers and solutions would often take much longer than necessary leaving not much time to answer questions.
Response #3	Dheer (graduate assistant) was without question the worst TA I've had in my 4 years at the university. Discussion time was not used effectively. Dheer did not know how to teach information in a way that students could comprehend or understand. I often felt less informed of the material after a discussion class than I did before because Dheer was that bad at teaching, and I know other students agreed with me. He was not efficiently available to answer questions, and when he did answer questions that explanations often made little to no sense. I loathe any student who must have Dheer as a teacher/TA in the future.

Response #1	Great teacher. Explained everything well
Response #2	This was the first year teaching a class for this TA, and with that in mind, I believe that he did a decent job. The beginning of the semester was rough, however he has made major improvements since then. It was very clear that the TA cared about his students and really wanted them to succeed. He frequently asked his students if they needed any additional help and if there was anything that he could do to improve his teaching.
Response #3	I have nothing further to add.
Response #4	He was a good TA, and he cared whether or not we understood the material
Response #5	Dheer was a very kind and knowledgeable TA. He made an effort to have an interactive class, engaging all of the students in the lessons.
Response #6	This TA was good but hard to understand.
Response #7	Dheer was a good TA, but messed up on occasion. Noting this, he made the class enjoyable and was always willing to help those who needed it or even take help when needed.
Response #8	He was fun and very personable
Response #9	I liked Dheer and he clearly cared about teaching and us doing well. He explained a lot of topics way more clearly than Panek. I learned a lot more in discussion rather than lecture.

Questions
QID	Question
1117	Additional Comments:
Response #1	sometimes is not prepared to complete class examples. confuses the class further. it helps to go through the process of how to do a problem rather than jump right into a difficult example
Response #2	He was always available during office hours and frequently agreed to meet outside of his hours just to help me, which I really appreciated.
Response #3	He actually does not know this material well enough to teach it. He frequently needs to be corrected and does not know how to answer our questions, quite possibly because he doesn't know the answer himself.
Response #4	He made mistakes in work often and students in the class would have to point them out to him. It was difficult to understand his explanations of the material and there seemed to be a lack of communication between him and the professor.
Response #5	Dheer often had problems explaining concepts or would make basic mistakes when evaluating sample problems, leading to the students being more confused and lead down the wrong path.
