| Response #1 | n/a |
| Response #2 | none |
| Response #3 | At the beginning of the year he waited too long to go over questions. this led to students staying later and waiting to ask him something. He corrected this over the year and eventually got much better at class room time management. |
| Response #4 | none |
| Response #5 | n/a |
| Response #6 | none |
| Response #7 | The answers to questions were sometimes not explained very well and I was still confused with what to do. |
| Response #8 | told us he was going to make the quiz "hard on purpose" in order to "motivate" us... |
| Response #9 | My only complaint is that our quizzes that were made by him were frequently harder than what we learned in class. My discussion is always the day before our quizzes where he gives us review sheets for the quiz. The review sheets are fairly challenging but doable. The quizzes on the other hand are always much much more challenging than what we were previously given and I always feel severely unprepared for them. It is at the point where I do better on the exams than the 5 question quizzes which for most classes, is not normal. He was a good TA I just wish he would either challenge us more in discussions to prepare us better for the quizzes or make the quizzes more similar to what we learned in class. |

| QID | Question |
| 1117 | Additional Comments: |

| | |
|--------------------|---|
| Response #1 | Not enough help with what we needed to complete in class, would only go over a couple of the problems and when you asked a question one on one he would not answer well enough to understand how to complete the problem or what you were asking about. |
| Response #2 | none. |
| Response #3 | He tried his best, just a difficult subject for some people to understand. He also has a different teaching style that most students are not fond of, but overall he was very kind and really did try. |
| Response #4 | None |
| Response #5 | None |
| Response #6 | I never went to office hours so I don't know their availability. He showed up late sometimes,, but that's fine because its and 8am and i rarely showed up on time either. |
| Response #7 | he was very kind and was always able to help me with anything i needed. since my professor didn't teach a single thing, dheer basically taught me the whole curriculum himself. |

| Response #1 | Helpful and answered any questions |
| Response #2 | I ended up going to the TA every week for extra help and to learn about the material in class, since professor Hotchkiss was not a good teacher. The TA made himself very available and if times did not work with my schedule, he was extremely flexible to work around my schedule. I am very satisfied that I attended his office hours and strongly recommend him to others. |
