Preamble

We, the members of the Faculty of the Department of Materials Science and Engineering in the College of Engineering at the University of Delaware, concerned with continual improvement of academic standards and dedicated to the achievement of academic excellence, are convinced that those directly involved in instructional and research activities also must play an active role in administrative and academic affairs relating to the Materials Science and Engineering Department (hereinafter, "the Department"). Therefore, being aware that a regular authorized and representative agency of the Department must serve this function if academic excellence is to be achieved, maintained and improved, we hereby formalize these Bylaws to establish and constitute the official channel of faculty opinion in all matters which bear upon the academic program.

Article I

Mission

These Bylaws of the Department and the powers of the faculty shall be consistent with, and subordinate to, the policies of and authority delegated by: the University Charter, the Trustee Bylaws, the University Faculty Senate Bylaws and Regulations, the Constitution of the Faculty of the University of Delaware, the Bylaws of the College of Engineering, and the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the University of Delaware and the American Association of University Professors.
These Bylaws exist to better fulfill our mission of cultivating both learning and the advancement of knowledge in the engineering sciences by providing all of our students with outstanding graduate education programs so that they will know how to reason critically and independently yet cooperate productively.

A. All matters relating to the educational and administrative affairs of the Department are committed to the Department’s Faculty for the purposes of governing the Department.

B. The Department’s Faculty exercises control over all Materials Science and Engineering degree programs and curricula. The Faculty shall 1) Provide for the establishment and deletion of curricula and courses; 2) Formulate educational and academic standards; 3) Recommend to the College for appropriate action the educational and academic policies relating to the administration of university services (e.g., university library, computing center, etc.) as they pertain to the Department; and 4) Adopt regulations governing its own procedures.

C. The Department Faculty is responsible for the nature and the quality of the Department’s instructional, research, and service programs.

Article II

Membership of Faculty

A. Faculty. The Departmental Faculty shall consist of the Full Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors, Continuing Non-Tenure Track Faculty, and full-time Instructors in the Department; Faculty with Joint, Secondary, Affiliated, or Research Appointments; Faculty with Adjunct Appointments; Lecturers; Visiting Faculty; and Emeritus Faculty. A faculty member on temporary leave shall retain faculty status. The letter of appointment will establish the classification of each faculty member.

B. Voting Faculty. Voting membership is restricted to those members from the previous list of Faculty who hold full-time tenured, tenure-track, or continuing non-tenure track, Instructor or Research appointments primarily in the Department.
Faculty with Joint appointments in the Department, as defined by a Memorandum of Understanding, may also vote. Faculty with Secondary, Affiliated, or Adjunct appointments; Lecturers; Visiting faculty; and Emeritus faculty may not vote.

C. Joint, Secondary, Affiliated, Research, and Adjunct Appointments.
Joint, Secondary, Affiliated, Research, and Adjunct appointments are appointments made in a spirit of mutual benefit and to formalize a connection between the appointee and the Department with the purposes of 1) Encouraging scholarly collaboration, and/or 2) Exchanging educational experiences. The categories of appointment are defined below. Unless otherwise stated below, appointments are for a fixed period of three years and are renewable. Any appointee must be nominated by a Voting Faculty member of the Department. Criteria for making a nomination would include: 1) Teaching, 2) Research, and/or 3) Service. The level of appointment (Assistant, Associate, or Full) will be commensurate with the individual’s resume.
Individuals with Joint, Secondary, Affiliated, and Research appointments may serve as primary research advisors. Appointments are confirmed as a normal item of business at a regular faculty meeting usually following a research seminar by the Faculty candidate.

1. Joint Appointments - The term Joint faculty appointment will refer to an academic appointment made to someone with a primary academic appointment in another department. The Joint appointment may be split funded between departments or funding might reside entirely in the home (primary) department (Faculty Handbook – Section 4: Personnel Policies for Faculty – Joint appointments are established by a Memorandum of Understanding that defines the responsibilities of the faculty member to every department where she/he holds appointments. Faculty who hold Joint appointments in the Department of Materials Science and Engineering will have voting rights and may serve as primary research advisors.

2. Secondary Appointments - All Secondary faculty appointments refer to an academic appointment made to a professional in the same or other department. If the person does not have a core faculty appointment (that is, they are a professional and do not have a faculty appointment to “return to”), then a faculty appointment for them would be “secondary” (Faculty Handbook – Section 4: Personnel Policies for Faculty – Faculty Appointments and Conditions of Employment – Updated 11/2/2006). Faculty who hold Secondary appointments in the Department of Materials Science and Engineering do not have voting rights, but may serve as primary research advisors.

3. Affiliated Appointments – All Affiliated faculty appointments are a courtesy appointment offered to individuals with full-time faculty appointments in other units at the University of Delaware. Faculty who hold Affiliated appointments in the Department of Materials Science and Engineering do not have voting rights, but may serve as primary research advisors.

4. Research Faculty Appointments – Research appointments are for individuals with significant responsibilities for externally-funded and sponsored programs of research. Because the salary of Research faculty derives largely or exclusively from grants and contracts, research responsibilities generally constitute all or most of the Research faculty’s workload. While Research faculty do not have ongoing responsibilities for regularly scheduled undergraduate and graduate instruction and advisement, they may supervise undergraduate and graduate students who participate in their research programs. Research Faculty may participate in scheduled instruction, on a voluntary basis, so long as that participation is consistent with their research responsibilities. Funding to support the appointment of Research faculty must be continuous during the term of an appointment contract. Because appointments are made to fulfill external grant and contract responsibilities, the renewal limit on temporary appointments does not apply; renewals may be approved that are congruent with the terms of external contracts (Faculty Handbook – Section 4: Personnel Policies for Faculty – Faculty Appointments and Conditions of Employment – Updated 11/2/2006). Faculty who hold Research appointments in the Department of Materials Science and Engineering will have voting rights and may serve as primary research advisors.

5. Adjunct Appointments – Adjunct faculty are members of the academic staff who are appointed for a limited period of time during the year(s) in which they are actively involved in the teaching and research program of the University. Persons holding appointment as Adjunct (Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, or Instructor) must make a contribution to the University in the form of teaching, research, or consultation. Adjunct status is accorded only after the regular academic review and evaluation. Rank is established according to the same criteria as regular faculty. Adjunct faculty are not eligible for tenure. No stipend is paid; terms of appointment are annual only, and contracts are not automatically renewed (Faculty Handbook – Section 4: Personnel Policies for Faculty – Faculty Appointments and Conditions of Employment – Updated 11/2/2006). Faculty who hold Adjunct appointments in the Department of Materials Science and Engineering do not have voting rights and may not serve as primary research advisors.

D. Lecturers and Visiting Faculty. Lecturers are appointed by the Chairperson to fill specific teaching needs of the Department. Visiting Faculty are appointed by the Chairperson upon recommendation of a Voting Faculty member of the Department.
These appointments are made on a semester basis.
E. The duties of a member of the faculty of the department include the following:

1. The teaching of assigned courses within the faculty member's general competence.

2. Conducting research and/or other scholarly pursuits related to the field of appointment and satisfying the conditions that the work can be conducted openly and has a reasonable chance of leading to results publishable in professional media.

3. Advising, encouraging, and challenging graduate students. Faculty with voting privileges and Faculty with Secondary or Affiliated appointments may supervise undergraduate research and graduate program aspects that require faculty advisement. Every doctoral dissertation and masters thesis committee must include at least one Voting Faculty member with 50% or greater appointment within the Department.

4. Participating in the duties of departmental, college, and university committees.

5. Actively participating at professional meetings, symposia, and seminars; keeping the departmental chairperson informed of these activities.

6. Seeking sponsorship for research and/or other scholarly pursuits.

7. Improving personal knowledge and capabilities in the chosen professional area of specialty.

8. Pursuing all activities in a manner that aids the other faculty and students in their progress toward reasonable goals.

establish dates for regular meetings and distribute the list to faculty members within three weeks after the start of the academic year. Written notice of special faculty meetings shall be given to the Faculty at least forty-eight (48) hours (not including

The Faculty shall abide by its own rules of procedure, but in cases where it has adopted no explicit rules, or where applicability or interpretation of rules is in doubt, Robert's Rules of Order – Newly Revised shall govern. A Parliamentarian may be appointed by the Chairperson to assure conformity.

F. Order of Business. The first part of the agenda will consist of old business, which will be disposed by majority vote of those present. Any resolution received by the Faculty at least one week prior to the meeting will be considered old business. The second part of the agenda will consist of new business. New business included in the agenda will require a two-thirds vote of those present for disposition.

G. Items Requiring a Vote of the Faculty. The following items must be discussed in a regular or special faculty meeting, and brought to a vote by the entire Department faculty: creation or elimination of specific courses, changes in names of the Department or any of its degree programs, and resolutions or motions which have effect upon the University, Colleges, or Departments of the University other than the College of Engineering or its Departments.

The proposed action will be considered to have been recommended by the faculty if it has the support of a majority of the voting members of the Department present at the meeting. The tally should be noted clearly in any related proposals going from the Department to the College.
