

Extended Knauff Family Tree

The following pages give an extensive Knauff Family Tree that goes back as far as the 1400's in Germany with a lot of supplemental information. The extensive work in this document was done by Walter Knauff, Jr. He is the son of Walter Knauff, Sr. who is noted on Page 5 of this family tree as the son of Jacob Ferdinand Knauff. Walt Knauff very generously sent this to me in a format to show my own particular lineage. If you know how you are related to me, your link into the tree can be determined without a lot of effort.

From the Grove City Reporter:

JACOB F. KNAUFF EXPIRES SUDDENLY

Jacob Ferdinand Knauff, son of Adam and Elizabeth Knauff, who was born November 8, 1861, in Beaver County, died September 20, 1927, aged 65 years. His death came suddenly and as a severe shock to all. He was stricken suddenly with neuralgia of the heart on the way to the home of his son who resides near the family home, death resulting instantly.

At the age of four years Mr. Knauff came to this vicinity with his parents and spent the remainder of his life here.

He was united in marriage to Magdaline(sic) Blumenshine and to this union were born ten children, who with the widow survive. They are: Clarence Knauff of Grove City, Mrs. Albert Baseler of Mercer R. D., Elmer Knauff of Mercer R. D., Mrs. Howard Breckenridge of Greenville, Rev. George Knauff of Venus, Pa., Mrs. James Dunn of Mercer R. D., Rev. Homer Knauff of Beaver Falls, Walter Knauff of the Lutheran Seminary at Columbus and Gertrude and Arthur, at home. He also leaves one brother, Herman, of Albion, and two sisters, Mrs. Milt Bortz of Greenville and Mrs. Martin Bortz of Shenango.

Mr. Knauff was always interested in the welfare of the community. He was cheerful and accommodating and a Christian of the first and finest. In his early life he was confirmed in the Christian faith and united with the Lutheran Church at Balm, Pa., and through his Christian influence three sons have entered the ministry of the Lutheran Church.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the Balm Lutheran Church, with Rev. H. J. Melcher of Grove City and the Rev. E. M. Waxler of Struthers officiating.

Six sons will be the pallbearers when he is laid to rest in the church cemetery.

From a newspaper clipping:

The following letter from professor Morgan Barnes, written on the occasion of the death of a near neighbor is well worth repeating:

The Reverend H. J. Melcher,
Grove City, Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir:

At the risk of exceeding propriety I venture to write you a brief word on the sad occasion that has taken from you a pillar of your church, from many of us a generous and ever-kindly-neighbor, and from all who knew him a cheerful and helpful friend. I cannot resist the impulse this belated tribute to one who I have known so long and so well.

Almost as far back as I can recall, I remember Jake Knauff. He was one of the "big boys" at school when I was a little fellow, and my earliest recollection of him is the grateful one of his unfailing kindness to the smaller pupils and his protection of them from mistreatment and bullying by the bigger boys. We grew up as near neighbors, and were always cordial friends. In later years, the circumstances cast our lots in widely separated regions, we had opportunity to renew our friendship from time to time with no lessening of cordiality.

As a neighbor, Jake Knauff was to be absolutely depended upon for sincere sympathy and active assistance in every emergency. It is hard to see how his community can get along without him. As an immediate neighbor said to me this morning: "I do not see how we can ever spare him!" His unselfish acts and constant thoughtfulness were continual object lessons, his unfailing cheerfulness and good humor under all circumstances are an abiding inspiration, and his eagerly sought and highly valued counsel upon all affairs of the neighborhood will never be forgotten.

His sudden going will take much of the brightness from the country side, and has left all of us who were associated with him far less equipped for meeting our daily duties with courage and cheer. We may be glad that his passing was so peaceful, thankful that he was spared long suffering and lingering disease, yet the fact remains that he is gone, and all our neighborhood misses and mourns him. However, when one has lived his life in such a fine, gentle, generous, upright, unpretentious spirit that when it is over such things as I have tried to express may truly be said of him, shall we not say that this life had been bravely, successfully, and victoriously lived?

Very Sincerely yours,

Morgan Barnes

Note by Walter F. Knauff: Dr. Morgan Barnes graduated from Harvard U., got his doctor's degree from Berlin University., Germany and was a professor at the U. of California. After retiring at 75, returned to Grove City, Pa., and taught in the college there. He was a Unitarian and lived to be 98. My father told us that when he was 4 years. old, the teacher stood him on a chair for the spelling Bee, and he could spell them all down. His sister was my teacher the first 4 years. in school. Their farm joined ours.
