

Descendants of Heinrich Eichenlaub

The 1993 Gehrlein Family History identified Johann Joseph Eichenlaub in Chapter VI as the immigrant from Herxheim nach Landau, Germany who settled in Erie, Pa with his wife Margaretha. Audry Schlindwein Mascharka provided a family tree in 1999 to trace the lineage of the Eichenlaub Family Name five generations back in Germany from Johann Joseph Eichenlaub to Heinrich Eichenlaub. The following pages give an extensive list of the descendants of Heinrich Eichenlaub, with a number of additional notes about family members. Johann Joseph Eichenlaub first appears as the first entry (8) in the list of 6th Generation Descendants.

16. ELIZABETH⁷ EICHENLAUB (JOANNES JOSEPH⁶, JOANNES VALENTINUS⁵, JOSEPH⁴, SIMON³, CHRISTOPHER², HEINRICH¹) was born December 25, 1841 in Erie, Pennsylvania, and died February 19, 1924 in Erie, Pennsylvania. She married PHILIP SCHLINDWEIN in Erie, Pennsylvania, son of GEORGE SCHLINDWEIN and MARIA DEUBIG.

Notes for ELIZABETH EICHENLAUB:

Elizabeth must have been her father's favorite daughter. Her name is on one side of the Eichenlaub family tombstone. He left her some money and the deeds to two lots and a house, when he died. My father, Fred, was very bitter toward her and wouldn't even talk about her. She refused to help her son's family. Other relatives said she was a mean old lady. She lived across the street from St. John's Church, the Nuns would tell her grandchildren to run over and ask her for flowers for the Church and they were afraid to go. Children would play ball and if a ball went into her yard, she would take it and not give it back to them, balls were hard to come by in those days. I guess maybe it wasn't too surprising, since their father died young, that two of her sons became alcoholics.

OBIT - FUNERAL OF MRS. ELIZABETH SCHLINDWEIN

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Schlindwein, who died at her late home, 454 East 27th St., was held this morning at 8:30. at nine o'clock a Requiem High Mass was held at St. John's Catholic Church by Rev. Father Hasse. Mrs. Schlindwein was a pioneer resident of Erie and the large attendance at the services gave evidence of the respect and love in which the deceased was held by all. (The reporter, evidently, didn't know her)

The pallbearers were Raymond and Vincent Alberstadt, Norbert Abel, John Mentz, Frank Alberstadt, and Leo Abel.

Mrs. Schlindwein was laid to rest beside her husband, the late Philip Schlindwein, in the family plot in Trinity Cemetery.

 v. EDWARD (PADDY) SCHLINDWEIN, b. 1877, Erie, Pennsylvania; d. 1958, Erie, Pennsylvania; m. LOUISE GARRIS.

Notes for EDWARD (PADDY) SCHLINDWEIN:

Edward went off to the gold rush as a young man, came back, minus any gold, and married a widow with two children. Worked at the American Sterilizer. Nickname was Paddy. He was short and round and looked like a little Irish elf when I met him about two years before he died. A mutual friend introduced us to him one night at the Knights of St. John club in Erie. My father at first refused to talk to him as he held a grudge against the Schlindwein family for treating his mother so poorly. Ed told him he was sorry, but when all that was happening, he was off on the gold rush and would have helped if he had been in town. Became a loving uncle soon after that. One Sunday, the club raffled off a pig, 25 cents a chance, and Paddy won the pig. He was living with one of his step daughters and had no need of a pig, so he offered it to my parents. Well, they wouldn't kill a poor pig for their dinner!! So he told them to sell tickets again and he started it off by buying the first ticket, needless to say, that was Paddy's Pig, he won again! Third time was a charm and he refused to buy a third ticket and someone else went home with the pig. He was too ill to attend my wedding and died soon afterwards. Buried at Laurel Hill Cemetery.

Notes for LOUISE GARRIS:

Louise had two daughters, Bertha Hayes and Louisa Lawson. Bertha lived with Edward and took care of him before he died

35. JOHN ADAM⁸ SCHLINDWEIN (ELIZABETH⁷ EICHENLAUB, JOANNES JOSEPH⁶, JOANNES VALENTINUS⁵, JOSEPH⁴, SIMON³, CHRISTOPHER², HEINRICH¹) was born October 18, 1863 in Erie, Pennsylvania, and died November 03, 1916 in Erie, Pennsylvania. He married HELEN (ELLA) LIEBEL November 23, 1886 in Erie, Pennsylvania, daughter of REINHARD LIEBEL and MARY UHR.

Notes for JOHN ADAM SCHLINDWEIN:

John Adam was an alcoholic and worked in the factory as a chipper, a low paying job. His father-in-law had employed him in his factory for a short time but I imagine his drinking problem lost him many jobs. They moved from rental house to rental house at least nine times, most likely evicted for non payment of rent. They lived at 801 W. 21st St. when my father, Fred, was a boy. He must have deserted his family about 1912 and moved to a houseboat on the bay in Lake Erie. It's a wonder he didn't fall into the Bay while drinking. He was burned to death in a barn fire and according to my father, he was drunk at the time.

OBIT - Adam Schlindwein Buried - Nov 5, 1916

Funeral services for the late Adam Schlindwein, 53 years of age, of 454 East 27th Street, were held privately at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Trinity Cemetery. Schlindwein is survived by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Schlindwein, a wife and one daughter. He was the son of the late Philip Schlindwein. The dead man was cremated in the fire that destroyed the barn of Stephen Rilling on a farm on Old French Road early Friday morning.

Please note, they left out his other daughter and his five sons, I wonder if they were asked to go to the funeral. Also, there is no mention of a Mass being said, I would guess his mother had to do some shrewd bargaining to get him buried in a Catholic Cemetery

Notes for HELEN (ELLA) LIEBEL:

She had a sad life, born to affluent parents, she spent most of her married life in poverty. Her husband was very handsome, but an alcoholic who couldn't hold a job. She gave birth to nine children in seventeen years, seven who grew to adulthood. Since Adam couldn't provide for his family, they moved from place to place. The Schlindwein family never helped her. Her own parents were deceased by the time she and Adam parted but I am sure the Liebel family did help her as much as they could.

OBIT - FUNERAL SERVICES - MRS. SCHLINDWEIN - Jan. 4, 1919

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Ellen Schlindwein were held this morning at 9:30 o'clock from the family residence at 3012 Raspberry Street, and from Sacred Heart Church at 10 o'clock. Burial was made in the family plot at Trinity cemetery.

Requiem Mass was given by Father Heidt at Sacred Heart Church and music was furnished by the church choir. The church was filled with friends and relatives of the deceased, come to pay last tribute to the life and character of a woman who was a devoted Christian, a woman of fine character whose friends were legion and whose death was a severe blow to those friends. The pall bearers were J. J. Silk, John Hawkins, J. J. Hurley, M. T. Sherry W. T. Diemer and A Steinhauser.

Isn't that a sad obit, it sounds like it was written by someone at the paper who had no idea who she was and just had to fill up space. I would guess the residence was the home of the Liebel and she was buried in the Liebel family plot. I have no idea who the pall bearer were, should have been relatives but ?

Her children were at least with her when she died, even Robert made it home from the Army two weeks before her death. All he wrote in his diary though was "Today mother died", wish he had put in some details. The children were too young and too poor to put a stone on her grave and it wasn't until the 1940's that they all got together and bought her one.

Children of JOHN SCHLINDWEIN and HELEN LIEBEL are:

68. i. ROBERT JOSEPH⁹ SCHLINDWEIN, b. January 16, 1888, Erie, Pennsylvania; d. July 1968, Chamberburg, Pennsylvania.
- ii. WILLIAM SCHLINDWEIN, b. 1889, Erie, Pennsylvania.

Notes for WILLIAM SCHLINDWEIN:

He was tall and handsome but never married that I know of. William stayed home and took care of his mother until she died. My father told me William died young of influenza, but have not found where he was buried or any date of his death.. He is in the city census until 1919, but there is no trace of him after that.

I wrote for a death certificate but they could not find one. It is possible he left Erie and died out of state.

- iii. HELENA MAE SCHLINDWEIN, b. September 1891, Erie, Pennsylvania; d. November 26, 1894, Erie, Pennsylvania.

Notes for HELENA MAE SCHLINDWEIN:

viii. GEORGE SCHLINDWEIN, b. January 24, 1902, Erie, Pennsylvania; d. August 21, 1987, Erie, Pennsylvania; m. GERTRUDE HERZOG.

Notes for GEORGE SCHLINDWEIN:

George was a good baseball player and umpired for the Glenwood League after he quit playing. He was the only tall and thin one in the family, very handsome. Never had any children. After playing golf, we would go to some of the games that he umpired for, can't say I enjoyed baseball, but the peanuts were good. He and my father worked for the same company all of their lives. He developed a heart condition in later years.

OBIT - GEORGE SCHLINDWEIN - Aug 21, 1978

George R. Schlindwein, 76, 3221 W. 13th Street, died Sunday at Hamot Medical Center following an extended illness.

Born in Erie on January 24, 1902, he was the son of the late Adam and Helen Liebel Schlindwein.

Prior to his retirement in 1967, he had been employed at Marathon Electric, formerly Burke Electric, for more than 40 years. He was a pitcher in the Glenwood Baseball League for many years. He was a member of St. Jude the Apostle Church.

Survivors include his wife, Gertrude Herzog Schlindwein, and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Tobolski of Reading, Pa. Interment will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery.

Notes for GERTRUDE HERZOG:

She was always dressed in style and I never saw her in a house dress. Wore high heels and had an extremely high instep, so they looked so well on her. Not a pretty woman but strikingly attractive, tall and thin with dark brown hair. She had me spend a few weekends with her and tried to get me more interested in grooming and clothes. Remember reading all of her True Romance Magazines. Always went home with a new hair-do and polished nails. She was disappointed that they never had children.

OBIT - GERTRUDE A. HERZOG SCHLINDWEIN - May 7, 1981

Burial will be at Gate Of Heaven Cemetery.

- ix. MARGARET SCHLINDWEIN, b. 1905, Erie, Pennsylvania; d. 1986, Reading, Pennsylvania; m. ANTHONY TOBALSKI.

Notes for MARGARET SCHLINDWEIN:

Margaret must have had a hard childhood, her father left when she was five and her mother died when she was only 14. Lizzie took over and raised her. Lizzie and she were always very close, more like mother and daughter. Margaret was short and stout, like most of the Schlindwein's. She would stutter when she spoke and was very self conscious of it. Never had any children which she always regretted.

Notes for ANTHONY TOBALSKI:

He worked in a factory, was short and round and a very nice man. Made Margaret a good husband. They lived on W. 11th Street, just a few blocks from Lizzie, Margaret's sister. His family was from Reading, Pa. and after he retired, they moved there.

Herb was a baker and had owned a bakery in Edinboro. When he sold it, he worked as a baker at the Super Duper super market in Erie. Asked him for some of his recipies, but he could only bake in large amounts, Helen did all the home baking. He was a short, stout man, like most of the Schlindweins. We tried to figure out the relationship while he and Fred were alive but all he could remember was visiting his Schlindwein grandmother when he was a little boy. He was a very easy going, likable man. He lived seven years after his wife died but was very lonely without her and really just faded away.

OBIT - Herbert J. Geiger - Owned Edinboro Bakery for Many Years

Herbert J. Geiger, 84, 1417 West 30th Street, died Monday July 15, 1991, at Western Reserve Convalescent Home.

He was a member of Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church. He was a life member of Elks Lodge in Corry and was an avid bowler at one time. He was a US Army veteran of World War II, serving in the 14th Infantry.

He was preceeded in death by his wife Helen Mascharka Geiger, a brother Wilfred O. Geiger in 1980, and a sister Clemtine Geiger in 1944.

Burial will be at Trinity Cemetery.

Notes for HELEN MASCHARKA:

They married late in life, both in their 40's, and never had any children. Helen was Al's aunt. She was a very prim and proper woman and always maintained a beautiful home. She helped with the bakery in Edinboro and they had a lovely house near the lake. She loved to travel and would pay us surprize visits from time to time. Herb did not like to drive so it wasn't that often that she could talk him into coming. We always stopped into see her when we went to Erie and she would have Pulakas sponge candy for our children. Every Christmas we would recieve a box of Steffinelli's candy from them and would make a ritual of passing it around after we opened our gifts. It was a little touch of Erie. She was taken ill but would not tell anyone what was wrong with her and finally died of cancer. The last time we saw her, her sister was celebrating 50 years as a Nun, and although very ill, she remarked to me, that it was the happiest day of her life. She had gotten to be with all of the family. She took very good care of her husband, Herb, and he was lucky to have found her.

Notes for ROBERT JOSEPH SCHLINDWEIN:

Robert joined the army in 1908 and was sent to Hawaii's Schofield Barracks. I would guess, since his father was still at home, he might have joined to get away from the problems between his parents. He was a CPR. and a cook, in the 5th Cavalry. At that time the base was not developed and they lived in tents with no running water so he didn't have an easy Army life. Their only recreation was riding horses around the island. He left the Army in 1912, about the time his parents separated and he was needed at home. When the 1st World War broke out, he returned to the Army and was made a Lt. in Gridley's Raiders. He spent the war in Texas as an instructor. His most exciting times in the war, I guess, were spent in the Saturday dances given by the Texas belles. He returned to Erie two weeks before his mother died. In his diary, there are notations of money that he had sent home to her, a good and loving son. He attained the rank of Captain and taught military science at the Scotland School for Veteran Children in Pennsylvania. He married a widow, who also worked there. She had two children and they together had a daughter, Ruth. Every summer the family came back to Erie for a reunion and the whole family would get together for a fish fry on the Peninsula. In later years, Uncle Bob would come unannounced and just show up for dinner, which would put my mother in a tizzy as she never thought she was a good cook. I would get a frantic phone call and have to make dinner for them.

OBIT - ROBERT SCHLINDWEIN

Robert J. Schlindwein, eighty, of Route 2, Chambersburg, Pa., died monday morning in Chambersburg

Hospital following an extended illness. Mr. Schlindwein was born in Erie, the son of the late Adam and Ella Liebel Schlindwein.

In 1958, Mr. Schlindwein retired following 33 years as a military instructor at Scotland School for Veteran's Children in Scotland, Pa. He was a retired Army Captain and a veteran of World War I. Mr. Schlindwein was a life member of the American Legion where he served as a member of the executive committee and as past commander of the Burt J. Asper Post 46. He was also a member of Voiture 509 and the Veterans of World War I of USA, Inc. Benjamin Franklin Barracks.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Elleane Fuller McCleaster Schlindwein who died April 23, 1944. Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Powell A. Brown of Wesleyville; a stepson, John R. McCleaster of Chambersburg; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Patricia Rupert of Dallas, Texas; four grandchildren, five step-grandchildren and four step-great grandchildren. Also surviving are two brothers, Fred and George Schlindwein of Erie, and a sister Mrs. Margaret Tobolski of Reading, Pa. The grave side military service will be conducted by the Burt J. Asper Post 46 of the American Legion.

Notes for ELLEAN FULLER:

She was a widow with two small children, Russ and Patricia, supporting herself as a dressmaker at the Scotland School. She had a stroke a few years before she died and although she lost the use of one hand, she still managed beautifully with raising her family. Died of a heart attack during the war and my mother, Helen and I, took an all day train ride to be at her funeral. She was my mother's favorite in-law and a truly lovely person.

Child of ROBERT SCHLINDWEIN and ELLEAN FULLER is:

104. i. RUTH¹⁰ SCHLINDWEIN, b. August 06, 1930, Chambersburg, Pennsylvania.

69. ELIZABETH⁹ SCHLINDWEIN (JOHN ADAM⁸, ELIZABETH⁷ EICHENLAUB, JOANNES JOSEPH⁶, JOANNES VALENTINUS⁵, JOSEPH⁴, SIMON³, CHRISTOPHER², HEINRICH¹) was born 1893 in Erie, Pennsylvania, and died 1956. She married (1) GUY V. DICKEY. She married (2) JOSEPH DRISCOLL. She married (3) JAMES BAUDER. She married (4) MICHAEL TUSCH.

Notes for ELIZABETH SCHLINDWEIN:

Elizabeth had four husbands. She was always a heavy woman but with a nice personality. She helped raise her young sister, Margaret, and tried to hold the family together. She was married young to James Driscoll and had her only children by him. She remarried after her husband's fatal accident to her second husband, Charles Bauder and he adopted her youngest son, giving him his name. Her oldest wanted to keep the Driscoll name of his natural father. Her third husband was Guy Dickey and I remember being fascinated by his wooden leg. One of the houses she lived in was built over the remains of the Erie Canal on 11th St. She was ill with cancer when she married her fourth husband. Her first name might have been Rose, but she was always called Lizzie by everyone.

Notes for GUY V. DICKEY:

He had a wooden leg that I think was the result of an industrial accident rather than a war injury, it fascinated me as a child.

105. i. JAMES JOSEPH¹⁰ DRISCOLL, b. June 27, 1911, Erie, Pennsylvania; d. June 12, 1981, Erie, Pennsylvania.
106. ii. CHARLES DRISCOLL BAUDER, b. December 12, 1913, Erie, Pennsylvania; d. November 03, 1973, Erie, Pennsylvania.

70. EUGENE⁹ SCHLINDWEIN (*JOHN ADAM*⁸, *ELIZABETH*⁷ EICHENLAUB, *JOANNES JOSEPH*⁶, *JOANNES VALENTINUS*⁵, *JOSEPH*⁴, *SIMON*³, *CHRISTOPHER*², *HEINRICH*¹) was born 1896 in Erie, Pennsylvania, and died December 07, 1953 in Astoria, New York. He married MARGARET.

Notes for EUGENE SCHLINDWEIN:

Eugene was in the Navy during WW 1 and station part of the time in Buffalo, NY. The Liebel family remember entertaining him while he was there. Somehow he met an Irish colleen from New York City, Margaret, and married her. They had two children and made a few visits to Erie. Margaret would not entertain the idea, even though they lived in a 5th floor walk up apartment in Astoria, of moving to Erie. She was a very private person who told us she didn't even know her next door neighbors. They had a dog and Uncle Eugene would only walk him once a day because of having to climb the stairs. My Pop wanted to visit them in New York and several summers we started out in our 1936 Terraplane, got as far as Washington, DC's traffic and he would panic. If the traffic was so bad in Washington, what would it be like in New York! We got to see a lot of Washington but never New York. He finally got there for Eugene's funeral in 1953. Something happened at the funeral between his wife Margaret and Lizzie, my mother wasn't sure what, but we never heard from them after that. A shame! I wrote several letters to Eugene's grandson but he never answered.

Notes for MARGARET:

Margaret was Irish and refused to live anywhere but New York

Children of EUGENE SCHLINDWEIN and MARGARET are:

- i. EUGENE¹⁰ SCHLINDWEIN, JR., b. May 04, 1921, Astoria, New York; d. March 02, 1993, Astoria, New York.

Notes for EUGENE SCHLINDWEIN, JR.:

Eugene was married and had children but haven't been able to find more information. He never came to Erie on the trips with Mae and his parents so I never met him.

- ii. ELISABETH MAE SCHLINDWEIN, b. July 11, 1922, Astoria, New York; d. March 1986, Astoria, New York.

Notes for ELISABETH MAE SCHLINDWEIN:

Mae never married. Like the rest of the Schlindweins, she was on the heavy side but tall and had beautiful brown hair and to a younger cousin, she was very sophisticated. She worked as a receptionist for a radio station. Lived at home with her parents. A friend and I visited New York after we graduated and she took us to Coney Island and she was a fun guide. She got us tickets to all of the new TV shows and a ride to Ellis Island. Unfortunately, when her father died, her mother and Aunt Lizzie got into an argument and we never heard from them after that, although we tried sending cards.

71. FREDERICK HARMON⁹ SCHLINDWEIN (*JOHN ADAM*⁸, *ELIZABETH*⁷ EICHENLAUB, *JOANNES JOSEPH*⁶, *JOANNES VALENTINUS*⁵, *JOSEPH*⁴, *SIMON*³, *CHRISTOPHER*², *HEINRICH*¹) was born November 19, 1899 in Erie, Pennsylvania, and died March 13, 1972 in Erie, Pennsylvania. He married HELEN MASENAS May 05, 1929 in Erie, Pennsylvania, daughter of JOSEPH MASENAS and MARYANNA KLEKOTKA.

Notes for FREDERICK HARMON SCHLINDWEIN:

My father, due to his family's financial problems, went to work at the Burke Electric Co. at age 14. He was always sorry that he could not have finished high school. Liked to study, taught himself Algebra and Geometry from books at the Library. My fondest memories were the weekly trips downtown to the Library, I was so impressed by the Marble staircase. I owe him my love of the written word. His second choice was history and the Civil War fascinated him, his idea of a vacation, was to tour one of the battlefields. In the summer, the books were put aside as his first love was always the game of golf. He would go into work an hour early in order to get in 18 holes every evening. Won the club match play championship at age 67. His biggest thrill were his two holes-in-one. He was a left handed bowler, but golfed right handed. Loved to dance and he and Helen went to the Knights of St. John and the Sacred Heart Ushers club every weekend. He limited himself to two drinks as he was always afraid he would become an alcoholic like his father. Was too young for the first war and too old and in defence work for the second, but he did become an air raid warden to try to do his part. A very quiet, shy man, who never swore or raised his voice, and a great husband and father. He died of a heart attack, in March, on the send tee of the golf course. Just the way he would have wanted.

Notes for HELEN MASENAS:

Mother had a tough childhood, her mother died of blood poisoning two weeks after she was born. Her father had to find a wet nurse and she ended up living with the Kucharski family for most of her childhood. They needed the money her father was paying them, so they told her stories about him that frightened her of him and she refused to go back home. She did return, but was already on her own and working. Met Dad at a St. Pat's dance, went home with him because he was the only one who asked that had a car. Tried to learn to drive, smashed into a gas pump the day she took her test. She almost died when I was born and the doctor told her not to have any more children. Since she was such a bad driver, she was sure she would get in a wreck and kill me, her only child, she gave up driving but kept renewing her license for years, just in case she wanted to try again. Loved to dance and party. Didn't drink much, would keep adding ice to the first drink and it lasted most of the night. Halloween was special and she always dressed up, talked all the neighborhood mothers into it also. Won prizes at all the Ushers Halloween parties. Had to learn to golf so as to be with her husband as he liked to play with her rather than with the guys. Every summer, she and I would go out to the Masenas farm, she helped pick strawberries and I would eat them. Several autumns, she and a group of the neighbor women went out to the apple orchards to pick apples. A truck would pick them up in the morning in front of our house which was unfortunately across from the school. They wore their husbands clothes to pick in and came home looking like a group of very dirty hobos. I really wanted to pretend that I didn't know who they were. Mother loved it, it was just an added bonus that they paid her for picking them. She had TB at age 18 and a heart murmur. She was sure she was going to die young but her heart lasted till age 89.
