Notes for HENRY CHARLES DUERNER:
Notes from the DICKEY CENTENNIAL BOOK,
"ONCE IN A 100"
1882-1982
Dickey, North Dakota

From the Dedication:
"Like many Dakota settlements, Dickey was a railroad town and a farming market center. It boasted banks, retail establishments, a hotel, the offices of professional men..."

The exact date of the first depot is unknown but it is believed to be very shortly after the railroad came through...Among the early agents were Mr. Durner.

The first school building was built in 1882. It was a one room building which served for school purposes until 1903.

Before any church was built in Dickey, the pioneers met for public worship in the one room schoolhouse. The first Methodist church built in 1888 and the first Catholic church in 1910"

From p.28
The Dickey unit of the North Dakota Woman's Christian Temperance Union started organizing in 1888. Officers were...Secretary, Miss May Duerner...This unit continued through 1898."

From p. 31
Among the first teachers were Miss May Wansbrough...Miss Wansbrough soon deserted the teaching profession to become the wife of Mr. Duerner, an early N.P. depot agent."

From p.53
"...The northern Pacific Railroad came through Dickey in 1883 and among the first depot agents were Mr. Durner... "

Notes for PATRICIA (PAT OR PATSY) ESSIE LOEN:

Patricia Essie Loen Duerner

written in 1994

Patricia Essie was born to Carl and Essie Loen on February 28, 1927 in Fargo North Dakota. Essie Loen's comment about the weather on the day that Patricia was born is "the water was running in the streets". They lived in Fargo for a few years, then moved to Thief River Falls, Minnesota, where Carl Leon's parents lived. Patricia attended nursery in Thief River Falls. Carl Loen was transferred to Detroit Lakes soon after Patricia entered first grade in mid-year. In fourth grade Patricia was skipped 1/2 year ahead to conform with the new school system and started riding the bus from West Lake Drive to The Holmes school.

In her youth, Patricia enjoyed playing with the neighborhood girls (Frances Erickson, Betty Johnson, Ruth Walbaum, and Dorothy Walbaum). They often took the rowboats out across Detroit Lake and picnicked. They also enjoyed swimming off the family dock. Paper dolls under the trees in the front yard while drinking kool-aid was another favorite pastime.

When Patricia was in the fifth grade, her cousin, Betty Bee Gates, came to live with the Loen Family for about a year. This added a lot of spice to life at the Loen residence.

Patsy and Dick Duerner, a classmate, started dating in 10th grade. Dick Duerner lived a little further out on West Lake Drive, so they had many good times together.

Patsy and Dick graduated from High School in June of 1944. Dick left the next day for the service. Pat started college at Moorhead State Teachers College in the fall (after playing the snare drum in the city band all summer for concerts in the city band shell). After 1 year, Pat transferred to the University of Minnesota and decided to major in Home Economics. Pat joined the Alpha Delta Pi sorority where she made many life long friends. Dick Duerner came back from the service and also attended the University of Minnesota where they continued to date.

After graduating with honors in December of 1948, Pat taught school in Cyrus, Minnesota for one year.

Pat and Dick Duerner were married in December of 1949. After the wedding Pat moved to Pensicola Florida, where Dick was in flight training to become a Naval Aviator. They lived in Pensicola Florida, Corpus Cristi Texas, and Key West Florida while Dick was in the Navy. Lee Ann, their daughter, was born while they lived in Key West Florida.

In the Fall of 1952, The Duerners decided to leave Navy life, and moved back to Minneapolis, where they lived at the University Village in 1/2 a Quonset hut while Dick received more schooling in architecture.

After the school year of 1953, Dick accepted a job with Swedberg Construction Company in Detroit Lakes, Minnesota. Pat taught school part time at the Detroit Lakes High School. They built a house on Phiney Avenue in Detroit Lakes.

In 1958, after Lee Ann finished first grade, the Family Moved to Minneapolis, where Dick had accepted a job with Standard Construction Company. They Built a house in Deephaven Minnesota. They Still live in this house.

A daughter Cara Jean was born in 1966.

Pat and Dick are members of Wayzata Country Club. The Duerners have enjoyed many good times and good friends here.

Pat, through the years, has been active in the Girl Scouts, playing Golf and Tennis, oil and water color painting, and volunteer jobs of many sorts.

Pat and Dick have enjoyed traveling to different places. Since Dick retired in 1993, they have been able to enjoy even more traveling.

Notes for CARA JEAN DUERNER:

Cara Jean Duerner Broich

written in 1994

Cara Jean was born to Pat and Dick Duerner in 1966 in Deephaven, Minnesota. Cara and her older sister, Lee Ann were very close. Cara attended the Blake Schools from Kindergarten through high school.

Growing up, Cara was very involved in Skijammers ski club, summer camping, and crafts of all types.

The summer following graduation from high school, Cara had a job as a counselor/arts and crafts director for a YMCA camp. That fall Cara started college at Gustavus Adolphus College. During college she made many close friends, one of which introduced her to her husband.

Following college, Cara worked as a Registered Nurse at Abbot Northwestern Hospital in Minneapolis in their Cardiovascular intensive care unit taking care of patients for the first 48 hours after open heart surgery.

Cara Married Glen Broich in September of 1992, one month after starting a job at Medica (a HMO insurance company in Minnetonka, Minnesota). Cara and Glen spent the first few months of their married life living in a studio apartment in Minnetonka until they bought the house in which they currently live in Mound, Minnesota. Cara and Glen's "baby" is a 1 year old terrier mix dog named Gypsy.

Notes for LEE ANN DUERNER:

Lee Ann Duerner Mena

written in 1994

Lee Ann was born to Pat and Dick Duerner on August 25, 1951 in Detroit Lakes, Minnesota. Because Dick was in the Navy, temporarily stationed in San Francisco, Lee Ann was born in Minnesota, instead of Key West, Florida, where she spent her first year. Dick did not see his daughter until she was 6 weeks old, when the doctor gave Pat permission to travel.

The Duerners moved to Minneapolis when Lee Ann was one year old. They lived in the University Village. Lee Ann was not quite 2 when the Duerners moved to Detroit Lakes, Minnesota. The family lived there until the Lee Ann finished first grade. Lee Ann started second grade in St. Louis Park, Minnesota. The family moved to Deephaven Minnesota when Lee Ann was in the Third grade.

Lee Ann was active in the Girl Scout through High School. She played the flute in the Junior High Band. She also enjoyed Blizzard Ski Club. Lee Ann won a prize in high school for being the best typist.

After graduation from High School, Lee Ann attended Gustavus Adolphus College for 2 years. She transferred to the University of Minnesota where she majored in Fashion Design.

Following graduation from college, Lee Ann worked at Dayton's Department Store. She worked her way up to Assistant Buyer of the lingerie department.

Lee Ann married Roland Mena in 1979. They lived in St. Paul for a brief time, and then moved to Minnetonka, where they bought a house. They were in the process of remodeling this house, when Roland was offered a job in Baton Rouge Louisiana in the field of Chemical Dependency treatment. Lee Ann found a job with Insurance Achievers.

The Mena's bought a townhouse in Baton Rouge. Their Children, Hunter and Stacia were born while the family lived in Baton Rouge.

In 1989, the Mena's moved to Bozeman Montana for Roland's job. Lee Ann took the civil service exam and got a job with the Soil Conservation Service. In 1993 the family moved to Butte Montana, when Roland took over all of the Chemical Dependency treatment centers for the state of Montana. Lee Ann continues to commute to Bozeman and Whitehall for her job. Lee Ann and Roland have purchased a home in the foothills of the mountains overlooking the city of Butte. Lee Ann has been honored at her job for devising a method of publishing the soil scientist's papers.

Lee Ann sees her parents and sister as often as possible (they keep the road through North Dakota hot)
