

Notes on Children of Alban and Francesca Grethler Wick

Vincent F. Gehrlein collected numerous pieces of historical information in the 1980's regarding several families in Erie County Pennsylvania. When he died in 2001, most of what he collected was passed down to his son William V. Gehrlein. Attached is a summary of the information that Vincent collected about the Wick Family that he personally composed in 1984. It is focused on information regarding the children of the immigrant Alban Wick and his wife Francesca Grethler. It includes many historical facts that Vincent found regarding the Wick Family, some personal reminiscences, obituaries, and a copy of a page from the Benjamin Wick Family Bible.

1864 Greene Twsp. tax sheet showed property- Alban Wicks--Heirs.
---Alban no will; for any info see #29574 folder in file boxes.
A home of Ed. Roerhig, 8410 Lake Pleasant Road, who lives there 60 years said they have never saw remains of any structures on site and my guess is the present house on spot Wicks may have been for I heard once an old Wicks house and barn burned down years back.
The 1855-71 maps pinpoint spot just about where Roerhig home is standing. Research may show true location if desired; breaking down map property lines; footage; etc.

It is assumed Alban, being Roman Catholic; interred--' St. Boniface Cemetery as a blurred date on Alban Wicks church record Apr.7, 1867 but highly apt to be Apr.7, 1863. No marker shows for him on the monument there, only Franciskas name; but there is a chance, lies in spot he had with no inscription for him being lost in the time lapse. On church date given, no notations with it, as it were.

Her Maiden name from an old Bible owned by Mrs. Eugene (Marjorie Wick) Kreider; Waterford, PA a greatgrand-daughter; thru son Benedict, later known as Benjamin, whose son Albert was Marjorie's father.

In an other case her daughter Barbara married a Thomas Brace and a Brace Family Tree listed her name as Frances Cridler Wick and now with Robert Brace, Dunn Valley, Waterdord, PA who has it from his mother, living next to Robert.

The name Kradler on farm next to Alban Wick now seems to go into Cridler and Gredler and most likely Frances relatives.

To be researched--- name would be Gredler ~~was~~ from research made.

202 HISTORY OF ERIE COUNTY

The first resident pastor of St. Boniface's parish was Rev. Joseph A. Oberhofer, appointed June 16, 1857. Mass was said in the house of Michael Schnell until September of that year. During this time a structure was put up which served as church, priest's house and school. About fifty families belonged to the congregation and there are a few of the old settlers still living in the parish, namely: Martin Moritz, John Gredler, Martin Wick, Joe Lavery, Mrs. John Stesel, and Mrs. Elizabeth Wagner. Rev. P. F. Maloney succeeded Father Oberhofer in June, 1867. The old church burned down and a temporary structure was put up. In the following year Rev. Father Gerst took charge of the parish and was followed by Rev. Y. Vollmeyer in December, 1868. Dissensions arose between the nationalities in the parish and the only man who was capable to deal with the difficulty was Rev. Joseph A. Oberhofer, the first pastor. The bishop appointed him again and soon the parties were united and a new building was erected which stands today. The church was dedicated on May 25th, 1873. Shortly after this Father Melchior Appel took charge of the parish. In August, 1878, Rev. E. Hasse relieved Father Appel who was transferred to Meadville. The next change was made in August, 1890, Rev. John C. McEntee being the new pastor. He was relieved of his duties by Rev. Jos. W. Sieverding in August, 1891. The year 1894 brought another new pastor, Rev. Simon Assenmacher, who attended to the wants of the parish up to June, 1895, when Rev. Henry F. Dietrich was assigned to the charge. He built a new Sisters house but did not enjoy his pastoral works very long because in February, 1897, he took very sick and died on account of hardships. He was followed by Rev. Jno. H. Heibel, who was transferred to Rasselas in October, 1900, and succeeded by Rev. John B. Tipp, who is still in charge of the parish. A new parsonage was built in 1901. School-work went always hand in hand with the church work. The teachers were Messrs. Feuersbein, Rohmer, and Adolph Schmidt, and the Ven. Benedictine Sisters of St. Mary's, and now the Ven. Benedictine Sisters of Erie. The organist in the church since 1903 has been Miss Catherine F. Seus. At the present there are about sixty families and as the congregation intend building a new brick church all the members of the parish are working earnestly for it. Two boys of the parish became priests, Rev. Francis Wagner now pastor of Brookville and Rev. Jno. H. Heibel, pastor of Rasselas.

I-- son: Marion married in 1925 ??
I-- dau't Barbara

Information given by Robert Brace from a family tree his mother Anna has; R D 4 Dunn Valley Rd. Waterford PA 12/20/1984.

He said mother of Barbara was Francis Gredler Wicks but fathers name not included on history they have.

The old Brace family was out of West Green and Siegal swamp area and Thomas one of eight children; parents name on the list Robert has.

Barbara and Thomas moved into Waterford Town) about ~~1860~~?

The clue to Barbara came from paper at Erie Co. Court House filed 1867 by Franciskas on division of property in a packet; basement, dept of Wills #29574 stating Franciskas admx estate Alban giving all children an equal share----- Charles, Martin, Mary Sutter, Barbara Brace, Benj., Peter, John Hartman and children.

My grandmother Becker once visited Brace's in Waterford and referred to a Will Brace that had me call families there and a Lavant Brace gave me Rob't to call.

Robert's grandfather and Thomas were brother's, etc.

A granddaughter, Barbara; lives in Florida visits Anna each year; single, never married and I believe who assembled the Tree.

The name John Hartman very well may be husband of remaining sister of entire family not identified at this time thought to be Susanna or Luranna as census name blurred Her identity may now come from Hartman name, etc. and to be screened.

Note;---Alban Wicks had no recorded will; Register of Wills office; but referred to packet #29574 which only read out he'd died, with no set date attached.

J. Hartman name first seen in papers @Court House, Erie County PA then associated it with a daughter of Alban & Frances Wicks listed 1850
Greene Twp. Census on family " born 1842 Susanna.. age 8 "

On following Erie City Directory's 1862-1905 found addresses to an entry on Deeds stating house on Myrtle st, "owned by Martin Wicks to John Hartman", at Court House, had further reason to trace out
"Hartman" into Obits @Genealogical Erie Public Library/ Erie Co. Hist.
Society where an obit lead to Trinity Cemetery and monument showed name Susanna; to finally put end; search on entire Wick Family History began by my son William V. and myself to construct our Gehrlein history at that time, 1980, as a Mary, sister to Susanna, was a greatgrandmother to us, prompting Wick hunt.

PETER PAUL WICK.

son of;-- Alban and Franciskas Gredler Wick

born; Nov. 16, 1844 Penna. 1849 1919
died; July, 17, 1917 Greene Twsp. Greene Twsp.
Erie, Co. PA
Int.--St. Boniface Cemetery
Wattsburg Rd., Erie, PA -----

Erie Times; "died July, 17, 1917; Greene Twsp. Survived by wife and following children; Mrs. John Kaminski, George Wick, Miss Emma Wick, Mrs. Joseph Wolf, Frank and Clarence Wick; and one brother, Martin. Was 72 years, 7 months, 1 day old."

Lived on farm Old Wolf Road, later named Sampson Road where in 1984 is owner named;--James H. Zimmerly, 10028 Sampson Road, Greene Twsp. Erie Co. PA. who verified that George Wick, son of Peter formerly had.

Census showed a George Gamer lived in Greene Twsp. then gone but children of John Kaminski said their mother and George, with wife, had several times went to Kansas visiting Grandma Gammer.

Once heard a Wicks home and barn leveled by fire but if Peter (or others) not certain at this time as a statement made was son George had built a home on property, etc., and Zimmerly said there was no sign of remains of any former structures, over 22 years he lived there. As other Wicks lived in Greene Twsp. area it may imply the original first farm of Peter's parents in same area; #383 may be there's no trace of structures, near cornered; the intersection, south Old Waterford Rd. and Lake Pleasant Road.

1871 map Greene Twsp. locates all Wick(s) found at Erie Co. Court House, of elders. Note a WEEKS family in area; and in misspelling in referring to some WICKS, which may point out this study is factual toward Wick(S). Present owner at corner-- there 62 years -- mentioned above, said he saw no former structure but if a fire one time present house may be on original site, etc.

Erie Times;--

"Died when struck by car, Frank Wick, Feb. 28, 1967, age 87 yrs. son of the late Peter and Mary Wick, in Fort Wagne, Ind.

Note:-- Was later found Clarence had moved with a daughter to a town about 50 miles south of Buffalo N.Y., place unknown as of now.
